

Tino Gonzales – Nuke The Word (2003)

Written by bluesever

Wednesday, 07 July 2010 19:01 - Last Updated Friday, 12 July 2013 19:46

Tino Gonzales – Nuke The Word (2003)

- 01 - Heart Full Of Sorrow*
- 02 - You're Not The One*
- 03 - Nuke The World*
- 04 - How Do You Play The Blues*
- 05 - Raging Blues*
- 06 - Higher Ground*
- 07 - When Angels Weep*
- 08 - Why*
- 09 - Iz Them Da Blues*
- 10 - Here ! My Freedom Sings*

Personnel:

Tino Gonzales (vocals, guitar);
Tino Gonzales; John Popper (harp, harmonica);
Steve Guyger (harp);
Arnie Lawrence (saxophone);
Harvey Brooks (bass guitar);
Paul Harris (keyboards);
Gary Gold (drums).

Back to his roots, the latin guitarist plays the blue notes with guts and attitude and with nuclear energy. Our chicano from Chicago comes back, effectively, with a real aggressive, punchy and groovy blues/rock. The record is clearly committed against the official political choices of the present american government. Despite two cool latino instrumentals, the album is quite nervous and Tino, citizen of the world, in his lyrics as in his music stays close to the present world events. The rhythm section is as groovy and funky as it could be with Kenny Martin (Defunkt, Jaco Pastorius) playing drums, and Darryl Taylor (Kenny Burrell, Archie Bells) taking care of bass. As a plus, Nico wayne Toussaint brings his harp blues touch and Sjors Nederlof, a young

Tino Gonzales – Nuke The Word (2003)

Written by bluesever

Wednesday, 07 July 2010 19:01 - Last Updated Friday, 12 July 2013 19:46

dutch brilliant guitarist, burns the whole house down on the damn first song. ---recordheaven.net

download: uploaded anonfiles mega 4shared mixturecloud yandex mediafire zidd
u

back