

Vivian Campbell - Two Sides Of If (2005)

Written by bluesever

Tuesday, 09 February 2010 20:59 - Last Updated Wednesday, 17 July 2013 11:55

Vivian Campbell - Two Sides Of If (2005)

01. Messin' with the Kid 3:23
02. I'm Ready 3:10
03. Calling Card 4:54
04. Come on in My Kitchen 4:39
05. The Hunter 3:54
06. Like It This Way 4:23
07. I Ain't Superstitious 4:59
08. Spoonful 4:39
09. Reconsider Baby 2:59
10. Good Or Bad Times 3:55
11. 32/20 Blues 3:14
12. Willing for Satisfaction 4:30

Musicians: Vivian Campbell - Guitar, Producer, Vocals Bruce Bornett - Guitar (Rhythm) Terry Bozzio - Drums Mark Browne - Bass Bruce Cornett - Guitar, Main Personnel Michael Fell - Harmonica Billy Gibbons - Composer, Guitar Tor Hyams - Producer, Hammond B3, Piano Joan Osborne – Vocals

After his tenure in several of heavy metal's most legendary groups (most notably Whitesnake and Def Leppard), Vivian Campbell steps out into the spotlight for his first solo endeavor, and the results are nothing less than impressive. Taking his first vocal bows behind the microphone is a big step for someone who usually lets his fingers do the talking, but Campbell's vocal delivery is surprisingly inoffensive, especially in comparison to some axe slingers who think they have vocal cords. On this 12-song session of gritty, no-frills blues-rock, Campbell pays homage to blues gods like Willie Dixon and Robert Johnson alongside latter-day geniuses like Rory Gallagher. Fans of Campbell's shredding may be taken aback by the switch, but those with open minds and ears will be treated to a pleasant surprise. ---Rob Theakston, Rovi

Vivian Campbell - Two Sides Of If (2005)

Written by bluesever

Tuesday, 09 February 2010 20:59 - Last Updated Wednesday, 17 July 2013 11:55

download: uploaded anonfiles mega 4shared mixturecloud yandex mediafire zidd u

back