

Mahalia Jackson - Sings America's Favorite Hymns (1977)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 25 February 2010 21:25 - Last Updated Monday, 26 April 2021 20:09

Mahalia Jackson - Sings America's Favorite Hymns (1977)

Search Me Lord
Lord, Don't Let Me Fail
Old Rugged Cross, The Upper Room, The
Just a Closer Walk With Thee
Without God I Could Do Nothing
Take My Hand Precious Lord
It Don't Cost Very Much
Were You There?
Calvary
Didn't It Rain
Go Tell It on the Mountain
Walk Over God's Heaven
He's Got the Whole World in His Hands
Rock of Ages
Jesus Met the Woman at the Well
There Is a Balm in Gilead
Trouble of the World
Elijah Rock

Mahalia Jackson is often lauded as the greatest gospel singer of all time; but, this collection proves that even that high praise understates her gift. She was undoubtedly one of the finest recording artists of any genre and this anthology explores the full range of her abilities from raw gospel (Elijah Rock), to soaring anthems (Rock of Ages) and quaint folk ballads (It Don't Cost Very Much) - all of them sung with the perfect degree of power or restraint, rhythm or melody. If you only own one Mahalia Jackson collection, this is the one to buy. ---Christopher Hutson, amazon.com

Mahalia Jackson - Sings America's Favorite Hymns (1977)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 25 February 2010 21:25 - Last Updated Monday, 26 April 2021 20:09

download (mp3 @256 kbs):

yandex mediafire uloz.to solidfiles global.files workupload

back