Big Daddy Wilson is an American singer and songwriter who found his home in northern Germany. When he came over from the U.S. there was no blues in his baggage. He initially discovered the blues here in Germany which is where he will begin his international career.

For «Love Is The Key» he recorded his own songs exclusively with a small band; taking it back to the roots, often reduced to acoustic instruments, but always full of soul. His good friend Eric Bibb guests on two songs about Wilson's roots :«Country Boy» and «Walk A Mile In My Shoes». He's very proud of Bibb's presence because «I've learnt so much from him,» says Wilson.

The fruits of this learning can be tasted on Big Daddy's imminent European Tour. ---
