

Joe Louis Walker - Great Guitars (1997)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 19 June 2010 10:16 - Last Updated Sunday, 07 March 2021 17:18

Joe Louis Walker - Great Guitars (1997)

01. Low Down Dirty Blues
02. First Degree
03. Mile High Dub
04. Fix Our Love
05. Every Girl I See
06. Cold And Evil Night
07. Hop On It
08. Nighttime
09. Sugar
10. In God's Hands
11. High Blood Pressure

Line Up:

Joe Louis Walker - Vocals,Guitar

G.E. Smith - Guitar

T-Bone Wolk - Bass

Steve Holley - Drums

Andrea Rea - Percussion,Background Vocals

Joe Louis Walker is a powerful blues guitarist and singer whose versatility and musical courage are showcased throughout this frequently rousing set. Walker collaborates (and sometimes battles it out) with Bonnie Raitt, Ike Turner, Otis Rush, Buddy Guy, Matt "Guitar" Murphy, Taj Mahal, Robert Lockwood Jr. and the Johnny Nocturne Horns on one song apiece, in addition to having three features of his own. Of the many highlights, "Low Down Dirty Blues" (which features Walker and Raitt jamming on slide guitars), the 1940s jump band feel of "Mile-Hi Club," the Walker-Guy guitar explosions on "Every Girl I See," the joyful encounter with Matt Murphy on "Nighttime" and Lockwood's appearance on "High Blood Pressure" are all quite memorable. This all-star gathering works quite well and is consistently memorable; all 11 selections are well

Joe Louis Walker - Great Guitars (1997)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 19 June 2010 10:16 - Last Updated Sunday, 07 March 2021 17:18

worth hearing. ---Scott Yanow, allmusic.com download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto solidfiles global-files

back