

Joe Beard – For Real (1998)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 28 August 2010 09:22 - Last Updated Friday, 05 March 2021 22:04

Joe Beard – For Real (1998)

1. Drinking Old Taylor
2. Don't Start Me Talkin'
3. It's Up To You
4. CC Rider
5. Dirty Groundhog
6. Reap What You Sow
7. Elem
8. Who's Using Who
9. Things I Used To Do
10. If That's What Pleases Her
11. She's Wonderful
12. 37 Years Old
13. Airplane Blues

Line Up:

Joe Beard - Guitar / Vocals

Duke Robillard / Guitar

Bruce Katz - Piano / Hammond

Rod Carey - Bass

Per Hanson - Drums

Jerry Portnoy – Harmonica

This has well-presented variations of old-style blues, from acoustic ("Dirty Groundhog"), to slow burners ("Elem"), to Chicago/Muddy Waters style ("Who's Using Who"). Duke Robillard graciously acts in his role as a team player, although he stands out with a hip solo on "If That's What Pleases Her." Portney's harp on "She's Wonderful" is slow and easy, reminiscent of a hot summer's day in the country. --- Char Ham, allmusic.com

Joe Beard – For Real (1998)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 28 August 2010 09:22 - Last Updated Friday, 05 March 2021 22:04

download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto solidfiles global-files

back