

Deborah Coleman - Soul Be It! (2002)

Written by bluesever

Sunday, 26 September 2010 21:39 - Last Updated Friday, 11 December 2020 09:01

Deborah Coleman - Soul Be It! (2002)

1. Brick
2. My Heart Bleeds Blue
3. Don't Lie to Me
4. I'm a Woman
5. You're With Me play
6. I Believe play
7. Dream, The
8. Goodbye Misery

Deborah Coleman (vocals, guitar); Billy Crawford (guitar); Debra "Nardi" Salyer (bass, background vocals); Jason Paul (drums).

A powerful guitarist and an expressive vocalist, Deborah Coleman is a major force in the blues world. On Soul Be It, a well-rounded live set by her quartet, there are many highlights, including the rousing opener ("Brick"), the minor-toned blues "My Heart Bleeds Blue," the bluish romp "Don't Lie to Me," and a jump blues, "I Believe." However the most memorable selection is "Goodbye Misery," which has a marathon solo by Coleman that is full of fire and creative ideas. This highly enjoyable set serves as a perfect introduction to the music of Coleman. ~ Scott Yanow, allmusic.com download (mp3 @256 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto gett bayfiles hostuje

back