

Anson Funderburgh & The Rockets - Rack 'em Up (1989)

Written by bluesever

Tuesday, 18 January 2011 19:57 - Last Updated Sunday, 01 September 2013 09:16

Anson Funderburgh & The Rockets - Rack 'em Up (1989)

01. Tell Me What Have I Done Wrong? (3:05)
02. Since We've Been Together (3:20)
03. Rack 'Em Up (2:17) play
04. Mama and Papa (2:42)
05. 20 Miles (3:06)
06. Hold That Train, Conductor (4:19) play
07. I'm Your Professor (2:47)
08. I'll Keep on Trying (2:55)
09. All Your Love (3:30)
10. Are You Out There (3:30)
11. Lemonade (3:32)
12. Mean Streak (2:31)

Personnel:

Sam Myers - Harmonica & Vocals

Anson Funderburgh - Guitar

Matt McCabe - Piano

Mike Judge - Bass

Marc Wilson - Drums

Ron Levy - Organ (6,12)

Tater Britches - Rhythm Guitar (3)

Mark Kazanoff, Grady Gaines, John Selzer – Horns

Anson Funderburgh (born James Anson Funderburgh, November 14, 1954, Plano, Texas) is an American blues guitar player and bandleader of Anson Funderburgh and the Rockets since 1978. Their style incorporates both Chicago blues and Texas blues.

Anson Funderburgh & The Rockets - Rack 'em Up (1989)

Written by bluesever

Tuesday, 18 January 2011 19:57 - Last Updated Sunday, 01 September 2013 09:16

Rack 'Em Up is a straightforward blues album that demonstrates Anson Funderburgh's affection for the Texas shuffle. Nobody on the album, whether it's Funderburgh or the Kamikaze Horns, overplays their hand and it delivers the goods efficiently although without flair. ~ Thom Owens download: uploaded anonfiles mega 4shared mixturecloud yandex mediafire ziddu

back