

Eddie Taylor - My Heart Is Bleeding (1980)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 18 April 2019 15:25 -

Eddie Taylor - My Heart Is Bleeding (1980)

A1 My Heart Is Bleeding 6:00 A2 Going To Virginia 3:32 A3 So Bad 5:24 A4 Lexington Breakdown 3:53 A5 Blow Wind Blow 3:52 B1 Wreck On 83 Highway 5:36 B2 Soul Brother 4:44 B3 There`ll Be A Day 5:12 B4 Lawndale Blues 5:08 Bass – George Kitta Blues Harp – Carey Bell Drums – Odie Payne Guitar – Steve Beal Guitar, Vocals – Eddie Taylor Piano – Sunnyland Slim

Credible set from 1980 mostly cut in Chicago but first out on the German L+R logo. Taylor's in typically solid form, and his tough backing includes the marvelous Sunnyland Slim on piano and harpist Carey Bell. Taylor pays homage to his pal Jimmy Reed with a loping "Going to Virginia" and Muddy Waters on "Blow Wind Blow," but "Soul Brother" rides a chunky R&B groove that's a long way from Reed's rudimentary rhythms. The last five sides stem from a 1980 European tour (with Hubert Sumlin and Bell handling some of the vocals) and don't add much to the package. ---Bill Dahl, AllMusic Review download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto gett bayfiles

back

Eddie Taylor - My Heart Is Bleeding (1980)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 18 April 2019 15:25 -
