Bill Perry - William Sanford Perry - born in Goshen, New York on December 25, 1957, was an American blues guitarist, songwriter and singer who toured throughout the U.S. and Europe. In the 1980s, he was lead guitarist for Richie Havens. He also toured with Garth Hudson and Levon Helm around the same time.

Perry cited Jimi Hendrix, Freddie King, Albert Collins, Albert King, Eric Clapton, Johnny Winter and Duane Allman as influences.

In 1995, he was signed for an unprecedented five-album deal with the Pointblank/Virgin label. After meeting that commitment a 1999 performance led to his signing with Blind Pig records. He also appeared on albums by other artists, including Richie Havens, Groove Armada and Popa Chubby.
