

Crucial Rockin' Blues (2007)

Written by bluesever

Friday, 13 January 2012 19:36 - Last Updated Sunday, 22 November 2020 12:29

Crucial Rockin' Blues (2007)

01. Last Dirty Deal - Coco Montoya 02. Route 90 - Johnny Winter 03. Golden Rule - Lil' Ed & the Blues Imperials play 04. Hound Dog Man - Stevie Ray Vaughan 05. Phone Line - Dave Hole 06. I'm Gonna Leave You - Guitar Shorty 07. The Next Miss Wrong - Tinsley Ellis Live 08. Run Myself out of Town - The Holmes Brothers 09. It's 2 A.M. - Shemekia Copeland 10. Rockin' Harder - Lee Rocker play 11. 25 Miles - Johnny Sayles 12. Follow Your Heart - The Paladins

If completely raw, slightly unhinged electric blues is your thing, this Alligator sampler from its vast catalog is fine medicine to feed your fever. There are 12 tracks here from the likes of Johnny Winter, Coco Montoya, Tinsley Ellis, Shemekia Copeland, Lil' Ed & the Blues Imperials, Lonnie Mack, and Roy Buchanan, just to mention a few. The producers went from Australia (Dave Hole) to all four coastlines to bring approximately 50 minutes of the raunchiest, stomping guitar freakout electric blues onto a single disc, with participants including the Holmes Brothers at their wildest; the music comes from the Deep South (Guitar Shorty and Copeland), from Chicago (Ellis and Lil' Ed), from Los Angeles (the Paladins and Lee Rocker), and from New York (Koko Taylor [who is from Chicago but lives in the Apple now] and Winter). This is the burn-down-the-house style of music that most modern blues fans crave, and this is a hefty dose for what ails you. ---Thom Jurek, AMG download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto gett bayfiles

Crucial Rockin' Blues (2007)

Written by bluesever

Friday, 13 January 2012 19:36 - Last Updated Sunday, 22 November 2020 12:29

back