The swampy rhythm and blues sounds touch your ears and soul the minute you listen to the first track. This American sound is a new one in it's kind. Old, new, black, white, love, sorrow, pain, lost friendship, wanting to be heard, being happy and sad, it's all in this album. Sandra Level is an musician, an artist who has put her sole heart and soul into this album. For the past year she's been working on her debut-album, and the result is something to be proud of. As a singer songwriter and soundscaper she's managed to put every little piece of life in her songs. Travel with her through her adventures in Guitarchick With Blue Jeans, a true saga of Sandra Level. ---cdbaby.com
