Harp Attack! (1990)

1. Down Home Blues 2. Who 3. Keep Your Hands Out Of My Pockets 4. Little Car Blues 5. My Eyes Keep Me In Trouble 6. Broke And Hungry 7. Hit Man 8. Black Night 9. Somebody Changed The Lock 10. Second Hand Man 11. New Kid On The Block

Personnel: James Cotton, Junior Wells, Carey Bell, Billy Branch (vocals, harmonica); Michael Coleman (guitar); Lucky Peterson (bass); Ray "Killer" Allison (drums).

Four Chicago harmonica greats, one eminently solid album. Teamed with Junior Wells, Billy Branch, and Carey Bell, Cotton sings Willie Love's Delta classic "Little Car Blues" and Charles Brown's "Black Night." Wells trades harp solos and vocals, standing front and center on a fine rendition of Sonny Boy II's "Keep Your Hands Out of My Pockets" and the tailor-made "Somebody Changed the Lock" and "Broke and Hungry," obviously relishing the camaraderie between himself and his fellow harmonica giants. Meanwhile, Branch's showcases are the apt original "New Kid on the Block" and a deft cover of Little Walter's "Who." ---Bill Dahl, Rovi
