With over one hundred tracks of post war Memphis blues and early RB, most of it on the rare and hard to find side, this JSP box set will find its greatest appeal with blues collectors, although the more general blues fan will find a lot to treasure here, too. Among the many highlights are Sleepy John Estes sly Rats in My Kitchen, Rufus Thomas Hound Dog variation, Bear Cat, Bobby Bland's desolate Drifting From Town to Town, Pat Hares far from subtle Im Gonna Murder My Baby, and Junior Parkers classic Mystery Train. --- manydl.net
