

Honeyboy Hickling - Blue It (2000)

Written by bluesever

Wednesday, 05 February 2014 16:43 - Last Updated Monday, 08 February 2021 14:53

Honeyboy Hickling - Blue It (2000)

1 Wonderful Night 2 Goodbye Maureen 3 Do It Alone 4 Delores 5 Eddie Had to Leave Chicago 6 It's Over 7 Blue It 8 Judgement Day 9 Mumbles 10 Long Gone 11 Blind Owl
Honeyboy Hickling – harp, vocals Gerry McAvoy - guitars, vocals
(background) Ed Deane – guitar, sitar

Two decades of blowing the harp as a way of life and Simon "Honeyboy" Hickling is now established as a virtuoso player of international repute.

His harp technique, honed through years of touring and recording, combined with a live wire stage presence and a voice that can justifiably be described as "authentic", have won over an ever increasing fan base, united in their conviction that when it comes to the thing he does, nobody does it better.

Nominated for best UK harp player (2000) in Blueprint magazine, past credits include three years of touring and recording with Steve Marriot, sharing lead vocals and playing the harp. Recordings with Bo Diddley, Paul Rodgers, and occasional appearances with Anthony Thistlewaite's (EX Waterboys) Blue Stars - a session band featuring the "Kick Horns" and Mick Taylor.

Simon's own band "The DT's" are currently engaged on the "Never Ending Tour".

Appearances on the Paul Jones Blues Show, and Radio 2 programmes, along with show

Honeyboy Hickling - Blue It (2000)

Written by bluesever

Wednesday, 05 February 2014 16:43 - Last Updated Monday, 08 February 2021 14:53

stopping performances at many of Europe's largest Blues Festivals have increased his fan base still further. --- movinmusic.co.uk download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto gett solidfiles

back