

Guy Belanger - Blues Turn (2014)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 01 November 2014 17:10 - Last Updated Tuesday, 02 February 2021 21:45

Guy Belanger - Blues Turn (2014)

01. Take A Walk Around The Corner (3:58) 02. Queen City Storm (3:53) 03. Highway Song (4:21) 04. The Dark End Of The Street (5:25) 05. Trouble (4:06) 06. My Lil' Desoto (2:51) 07. Forty Days And Forty Nights (4:14) 08. Last Night (7:19) 09. Letter To A Friend (3:07) 10. Corrina, Corrina (3:29) 11. Great Change (Since I've Been Born) (2:59) 12. Death Don't Have No Mercy (4:43)

A virtuoso musician, great friend of this Festival and die-hard musical explorer, renowned bluesman and harmonica master Guy Bélanger turns every appearance here into an unforgettable party. After delivering an utterly convincing jazz experience in his last stopover, Bélanger returns to L'Astral with a new album, the electrifying Blues Turn. Guy Bélanger has been immersed in the blues since 1974. He's worked with the Delta Blues Band, Wang Dang Doodle and veteran Bob Walsh. The harmonica whiz has also collaborated with an impressive number of artists over the years, including Les Colocs, Jean-Pierre Ferland, Eric Lapointe, France D'Amour, Renée Martel, Steve Hill, and Nanette Workman. In 2003, together with guitarist Claude Fradette he composed the score for Gaz Bar Blues, a film made by his brother Louis. The score captured the prix Jutra for best soundtrack of 2004. Bélanger's first album of compositions was released in 2008, followed by Crossroads in 2010 and Dusty Trails in 2012. ---montrealjazzfest.com download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire mega ulozto solidfiles

Guy Belanger - Blues Turn (2014)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 01 November 2014 17:10 - Last Updated Tuesday, 02 February 2021 21:45

back