Hartman's Heart Breakers – Give It To Me Daddy! (1981)

A1 Let Me Play With It A2 Feels Good A3 My Southern Movements A4 Fetch It On Down To My House A5 Grandma And Grampa B1 Give It To Me, Daddy B2 Please, Mr. Moon, Don't Tell On Me B3 Oh Sweet Daddy, Oh Pshaw! B4 A Night In Carolina B5 No Huggin' Or Kissin' Vocals – Betty Lou DeMorrow

This LP is a real collector's item. Little is known about Hartman's Heart Breakers (the personnel is unknown) other than the fact that it was a country group that recorded in North Carolina with a young teenage vocalist who went by the name of Betty Lou. Betty Lou sings risque lyrics that are both cute and strangely sensuous while accompanied by the heated string band; one of the musicians plays the role of her leering partner. The music overall is memorable if heard in small doses but the ten selections (only a half-hour in length) released on this bright white album seems to only feature two or three different melodies and are certainly limited in their subject matter; such songtitles as "Feels So Good," "Give It Daddy to Me" and "Let Me Play with It" easily sum up the record. ---Scott Yanow, allmusic.com
