Eddie Cotton, Jr. is an electric blues guitarist from Clinton, Mississippi. A minister's son, Eddie Cotton Jr. grew up singing and playing gospel music at church and playing the music of blues legends like B.B. King at home.

Cotton studied music theory at Jackson State University in his hometown of Jackson, MS, then went on to serve as minister of music at his father's church. This seemingly unlikely combination of musical interests is precisely what engages Cotton's audiences, who appreciate his combination of classic electric blues with funky rhythms, soulful vocals and some downright blistering guitar playing.
