"The mystical allure of old music is listening to something that speaks of another time and place, as is communicated in the music contained in these mysterious grooves" - FMQB "Will make you alternately grin and weep with joy." - Victory Music Review

A collection of classic recordings from the 1920s and 30s featuring many all-time great performances of early American rural music. This series is a fascinating overview of traditional American musical styles from the Civil War to the 1920s including fiddle tunes, rags, banjo songs, religious selections, old ballads, blues, etc. --- yazoorecords.com
