

Hurricane Ruth - The Power Of The Blues...Feels Like Hurricane (2011)

Written by bluesever

Friday, 10 July 2015 16:04 - Last Updated Tuesday, 16 February 2021 16:16

---

Hurricane Ruth - The Power Of The Blues...Feels Like Hurricane (2011)

01. Roll Little Sister 02. I'm Gonna Get Evil 03. The Power Of The Blues...Feels Like A Hurricane 04. Let Me Change Your Mind 05. Mississippi Queen 06. No Worries 07. I Want To Take You Higher 08. The Lesson
Hurricane Ruth - Vocals Andon T. Davis - Slide Guitar
Gary Davis - Bass, Vocal Harmony Jim Engel - Drums, Vocal Harmony David Lumsden – Guitar

Hurricane Ruth created their own brand of blues which they call power blues. It has been described as raw, emotional, and dynamic. The "power" seeps into everything they do, from their original music to their live shows. The epitome of power blues is Hurricane Ruth herself. Ruth is a captivating performer, who will grab your attention from note one and never let you go! Willie Dixon once told Ruth "she was the only hurricane he could appreciate".

Hurricane Ruth LaMaster started performing professionally in 1979, and found instant success. She acquired the name Hurricane Ruth from the fact that no one believed that such a large sound could come out of such a small woman! Ruth has performed with Maynard Ferguson and his orchestra, Adrian Belew, and Louis Belson. Ruth has opened for John Lee Hooker, B.B. King, Willie Dixon, Taj Mahal, Ramsey Lewis Trio, Sam & Dave, and Fenton Robinson. Ruth is joined by David Lumsden (lead guitar), Gary Davis (bass guitar), and Jim Engel (drums). Hurricane Ruth is a "power"ful blues experience that you won't soon forget! ---cdbaby.com download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mega mediafire ulozto solidfiles

Hurricane Ruth - The Power Of The Blues...Feel Like Hurricane (2011)

Written by bluesever

Friday, 10 July 2015 16:04 - Last Updated Tuesday, 16 February 2021 16:16

---

back