

Black Cat Bones - Marquee '68 (1968)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 13 January 2018 13:38 - Last Updated Sunday, 14 January 2018 18:02

Black Cat Bones - Marquee '68 (1968)

1 I Want To Know 2 Fulltime Lover 3 Killing Floor 4 Ain't Superstition 5 Rock Me Baby 6 Don't Start Me Talkin' 7 The Hunter 8 I Got A Mind To Give Up Living 9 Train Blues 10 You Don't Have To Go Paul Tiller - vocals and harmonica Paul Kossoff - lead guitar Derek Brooks - rhythm guitar Stu Brooks - bass Terry Sims - drums

Black Cat Bones was a British heavy blues rock group from London. The band formed in 1966 with original members Paul Tiller (vocals and harmonica), lead guitarist Paul Kossoff, brothers Derek Brooks (rhythm guitar) and Stu Brooks (bass), and drummer Terry Sims. The band is perhaps best known for having had Kossoff and Simon Kirke in its lineup. Kossoff and Kirke later joined Free in 1968 and Kirke also became a founding member of Bad Company in 1974.

Black Cat Bones (named after a voodoo talisman associated with blues music) played regularly on the London pub circuit.[1] Early in the band's existence came several personnel changes, with Terry Sims being replaced by drummer Frank Perry. Perry would be replaced in early 1968 by drummer Simon Kirke. Paul Tiller was later replaced by vocalist Brian Short.

---skynfan.blogspot.com

download (mp3 @192 kbs):

yandex mediafire uloz.to cloudmailru gett

Black Cat Bones - Marquee '68 (1968)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 13 January 2018 13:38 - Last Updated Sunday, 14 January 2018 18:02

back