Versatile, passionate and accomplished. This characterizes the blues and soul singer whose popularity, through her duets with Philipp Fankhauser and Polo Hofer as well as her participation as vocal coach on "The Voice of Switzerland", now goes beyond the boundaries of just blues lovers. A native New Yorker, she has also sung backing vocals for international artists such as Michael Bublé and Phil Collins. She captivates her audience with her sultry vocals and charisma. Her performances are supported by her well-established band playing the Blues with Soul, Funk and Jazz influences.

Lilly Martin's 3rd solo album, "Right Now", released on May 22nd 2015, presents Blues & Soul at its best. It is a versatile collection of original compositions, including the title track "Right Here, Right Now", as well as some wonderful interpretations of songs written by Doc Pomus, Bobby Charles, Bobby Blue Bland, The Subdudes and Delbert McClinton. In addition to featuring Lilly's first-class band, the album includes an outstanding guest performance by former Tower of Power singer Ellis Hall. --- lillymartin.com
