The MUD BAY BLUES BAND has been electrifying audiences with their innovative and original Blues & Roots music for more than 37 years now and these world-renowned Soul Survivors show no signs of slowing down any time soon—quite the contrary!

In 2014, they went back home to White Rock B.C., the place where their musical journey began way back in 1978, with the aim of recording an album of original songs that would represent the band at their very best. And that's just what they did.

Recorded at Blue Frog Studios with acclaimed producer Victor Guidera at the helm, the new album, COLEBROOK ROAD, captures the band in high definition, high intensity and high gear. It's their finest recorded work to date and they're thrilled to be holding their official album release event at the place where they laid it all down, at Blue Frog Studios. --- inwhiterock.com
