

Bill Durst - The Great Willy Mammoth (2009)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 12 January 2017 14:09 -

Bill Durst - The Great Willy Mammoth (2009)

01. River 04:27 02. Cafe On the Gaspé 03:00 03. Beautiful 04:41 04. The Great Willy Mammoth 03:38 05. Flower Song 04:15 06. Wandering Blues 05:29 07. Radio: Soul Survivor 02:57 08. Homeless 04:30 09. 39 Days 03:18 10. All the Blues in the World 06:10 Bill Durst - vocals, electric guitar, acoustic guitar and mandolin Tom Dobrentey - drums Jeff "Stan" Fountain - bass Corey Thompson - drums on Wandering Blues and Flower Song Rob Wilmott - harmonica on Cafe On The Gaspé Joe DeAngelis, Darren Morrison - background vocals

Bill Durst may very well be the closest thing to a bona fide musical living legend that our sleepy would-be metropolis has ever seen. From international chart success with his truly amazing band Thundermug to the many solo albums he has issued since, he has never given over to posturing of any kind and has stood his ground firmly regarding his music, personal identity and independence. The Great Willy Mammoth is an impressive effort indeed, with Durst laying down fine and effortlessly sure performances with his gritty Rio Grande Mud vocals and bear-down-heard six-string work that will leave no doubt that the fire has not only definite not gone out here but in fact may be heating up more than a degree or two. Recommended. --- Rob Nicholson, cdbaby.com download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex 4shared mega mediafire cloudmailru uplea ge.tt

Bill Durst - The Great Willy Mammoth (2009)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 12 January 2017 14:09 -

back