A compilation of pure, from-the-heart blues, this is a driven explosion of unplugged blues by three of Chicago's best new minstrels: Harmonica Hinds, Eddie Taylor Jr. , and Tré . Harmonica Hinds has performed in the Chicago area since the early 1970s. He has made appearances on albums by Koko Taylor, Lefty Dizz, Moose Walker, John Primer , and Mud Morganfield . Eddie Taylor Jr. is a leader in traditional Chicago blues. Like his father, he lays down a great rhythm line for harmonica players! A new breed of young, upcoming blues artists are emerging from the Chicago area, and Tré has stepped out as the best of the lot. He possesses spectacular vocals and outstanding guitar ability, flaming on the heels of such greats as Albert King, Little Milton, Albert Collins , and Jimi Hendrix. ---cduniverse.com
