If you're looking for heavy blues-rock from a guitarist who's influenced by Iommi, Blackmore, Hendrix, Page, Bonamassa, Moore & "the Kings," then your search ends here with wah soaked Gibsons through cranked Marshalls. Guitarist/vocalist JD (Jeffrey David) was the founding member of Canadian Power Metal trio WICKED ANGEL, so it's obvious this is not your everyday blues band. Enough said - Turn it up! ---cdbaby.com

Jeffrey David's BLUES CONNECTION is a super heavy blues oriented hard rock band hailing from Ontario, Canada. Screaming leads on a Gibson through a cranked Marshall amp. That's the sound. Blues with balls, if you will. Axe slinger, singer & song writer, JD, is no stranger to "delivering the goods," as he is also the founding member of one of Canada's heaviest and well known old school Power Metal bands, Wicked Angel. Blues rock, hard rock blues, blues metal... name your poison, JD&C is extreme blues. ---cdbaby.com
