

Blues Cousins - Live At Sunbanks Blues Festival (2004)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 21 October 2019 13:36 -

Blues Cousins - Live At Sunbanks Blues Festival (2004)

1 Messing with the kid 2 No more dogging 3 Talk to me 4 Sweet home Chicago 5 Help me 6 Johnny B.Goode 7 My baby is coming home 8 Moscow boogie 9 Long time ago
Levan Lomidze - vocals, guitar Sergey Patrushiev - bass Slava Ignatov - drums, vocals

This power trio certainly rock and storm the barricades with their covers o some How about this for a cultural exchange - a Moscow blues band take their blues rock/bar band sound to the Sunbanks Blues Festival in Washington, U.S.A. God knows what the Russians got in exchange - presumably a Cossack troupe from the Bronx! Anyway this power trio certainly rock and storm the barricades with their covers o some familiar old standards and the guitar player has all the Hendrix tremolo style and Santana note-bending pyrotechnics off to a T. "Messing With The Kid", "No More Dogging", "Sweet Home Chicago" all rock along furiously and the crowd love every minute of it. The only time the pace drops is for "My Baby Is Coming Home" - but only slightly. If you like sturdy blues/rock played live in front of a raucous crowd you'll probably enjoy this. The next time you're in Moscow these guys are worth seeking out at the local blues club..
---Dave Drury,blues-cousins.ru download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto gett bay files

Blues Cousins - Live At Sunbanks Blues Festival (2004)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 21 October 2019 13:36 -

back