I had never heard of Linda Miles, an L.A. area vocalist prior to seeing her ad in The Living Blues Magazine, advertising this debut disc for sale, after ordering it I was immediately impressed by the vocal prowess of Linda Miles. The disc features 10 original tracks written by Chuck Duffy and Leonard Kallok, assisted by a multi talented ensemble of musicians performing stylish, house rockin' modern Blues. Miles vocals at times seem too echo a mid west vibe of a Shirley Johnson (Chicago veteran & Delmark recording artist) or/and at times Miles charm echo's the Southern sass of an Irma Thomas (New Orleans legend) all combined with an obviously church bred Gospel sensibility & vocal command. Anyone interested in what's up with the Modern West coast Blues scene..check out Linda Miles&Company as she bakes up a "tasteful delight" with "Home Cookin"! ---d.nice, amazon.com

Linda Miles has been one of L.A.'s best kept secrets. In 1998, under the management and guidance of Frances Gavin, Linda embarked on a music career in the arena of blues rock, performing original tunes written by Chuck Duffy and Leonard Kallok. The result of this collaboration is Linda's slammin' new CD 'Home Cookin' produced by Frances Gavin, and co-produced by Rich Wenzel and RichE Blaze. Musicians blazing through the tunes include Rich Wenzel, Keys; Kirk Fletcher, Guitar; Todd Robinson, Guitar; Charlie Ewing, Bass; Bobby Tsukamoto, Bass and Gary Ferguson, Drums. The CD features ten original tunes all featuring Linda's sultry and powerful lead vocals that have made her a favorite among many today. With
