

Freddie King - Woman Across the River (1973)

Written by bluesever

Wednesday, 28 October 2009 11:36 - Last Updated Tuesday, 26 January 2021 13:56

Freddie King - Woman Across the River (1973)

- * 1. Woman Across The River
- * 2. (I'm Your) Hootchie Cootchie Man
- * 3. The Danger Zone
- * 4. Boogie Man
- * 5. Leave My Woman Alone
- * 6. Just A Little Bit
- * 7. Yonder Wall
- * 8. Help Me Through The Day
- * 9. I'm Ready
- * 10. Trouble In Mind
- * 11. You Don't Have To Go

Musicians: * Freddie King-guitar & vocals

- * Chuck Blackwell-drums
- * Rev. Patrick Henderson-piano & organ
- * Jim Keltner-drums
- * Don Preston-guitar
- * Carl Radle-bass
- * Leon Russell-piano
- * The O'Neal Twins-backing vocals

King's last Shelter album was his most elaborately produced, with occasional string arrangements and female backups vocals, although these didn't really detract from the net result. Boasting perhaps heavier rock elements than his other Shelter efforts, it was characteristically divided between blues standards (by the likes of Willie Dixon and Elmore James), Leon Russell tunes, and more R&B/soul-inclined material by the likes of Ray Charles and Percy Mayfield. It's been reissued, along with his other Shelter albums, on the King of the

Freddie King - Woman Across the River (1973)

Written by bluesever

Wednesday, 28 October 2009 11:36 - Last Updated Tuesday, 26 January 2021 13:56

Blues anthology. --- Richie Unterberger, allmusic.com

download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto gett solidfiles bayfiles

back