

John Lee Hooker – More Real Folk Blues – The Missing Album (1991)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 01 February 2014 17:21 - Last Updated Tuesday, 09 March 2021 21:10

John Lee Hooker – More Real Folk Blues – The Missing Album (1991)

1 This Land Is Nobody's Land 2 Deep Blue Sea 3 Nobody Knows 4 Mustang Sally & GTO 5 Lead Me 6 Catfish 7 I Can't Quit You Baby 8 Want Ad Blues 9 House Rent Blues Drums – Fred Below Guitar – Eddie Burns Organ – Lafayette Leake (tracks: 6) Piano – Lafayette Leake (tracks: 2, 4, 5, 7 to 9) Vocals, Guitar – John Lee Hooker Recorded 1966 for Chess Records

Produced by Ralph Bass in 1966 but not issued by Chess at the time, More Real Folk Blues was unearthed by MCA only a few years back. It's no masterpiece, but certainly deserved release in its day -- backed by Burns and a Chicago rhythm section that copes as well as can be expected with Hooker's singular sense of timing, the Boogie Man answers Sir Mack Rice with his "Mustang Sally & Gto" and keeps things way lowdown on several other cuts. ---Bill Dahl, allmusic.com download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire mega ulozto solidfiles global-files

back