

Lightnin' Hopkins – The Texas Blues Man (1969)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 14 March 2011 09:30 - Last Updated Thursday, 01 April 2021 20:58

Lightnin' Hopkins – The Texas Blues Man (1969)

1. Mojo Hand - 3:17 play
2. Cotton - 5:58
3. Little Wail - 2:57
4. Hurricane Betsy - 5:52
5. Take Me Back, Baby - 2:55
6. Really Nothin' But The Blues - 5:10
7. Guitar Lightnin' - 4:17
8. Woke Up This Morning - 4:27
9. Shake Yourself - 4:15
10. California Showers - 7:46
11. Goin' Out - 3:01 play
12. Tom Moore Blues - 4:55
13. I Would If I Could - 3:13
14. At Home Blues - 3:02
15. Watch My Fingers - 2:43
16. Bud Russell Blues - 4:25
17. Cut Me Out Baby - 3:27

Lightnin' Hopkins - Guitar, Vocal

Don Crawford - Harmonica

Jimmy Bond, Gino Landry - Bass

Earl Palmer, Victor Leonard – Drums

Texan Sam 'Lightnin' Hopkins strayed beyond the usual blues topics (bad women, tough times, hard liquor, etc) and reported on the happenings of his day, including aerospace travel, the wars in Vietnam and Korea, and natural disasters of all shapes and sizes. Worth the splurge, this seven disc box collects 12 of his albums from the 1960's. Considering that he recorded more than 50 albums in a nearly 40-year recording career, this is a great way to start getting

Lightnin' Hopkins – The Texas Blues Man (1969)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 14 March 2011 09:30 - Last Updated Thursday, 01 April 2021 20:58

acquainted with a Blues legend.

This album contains two track from session in Berkeley, California in 1961; nine track from Los Angeles session with rhythm section, recorded in 1965 and six track from Houston session in 1967.

download (mp3 @256 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto solidfiles global.files

back