

Muddy Waters - Folk Singer (1964)

Written by bluesever

Wednesday, 23 June 2010 08:52 - Last Updated Friday, 07 June 2013 16:55

Muddy Waters - Folk Singer (1964)

1. My Home Is In The Delta
2. Long Distance
3. My Captain
4. Good Morning School Girl
5. You Gonna Need My Help
6. Cold Weather Blues
7. Big Leg Woman
8. Country Boy
9. Feel Like Going Home

Personnel:

Muddy Waters (vocals, guitar);

Buddy Guy, James "Pee Wee" Madison, Sam Lawhorn (guitar);

James Cotton (harmonica);

J.T. Brown (tenor saxophone, clarinet);

Otis Spann (piano);

Willie Dixon, Milton Rector (bass);

Clifton James, S.P. Leary (drums)

Muddy's "unplugged" album was cut in September of 1963 and still sounds fresh and vital today. It was Muddy simply returning to his original style on a plain acoustic guitar in a well-tuned room with Willie Dixon on string bass, Clifton James on drums, and Buddy Guy on second acoustic guitar. The nine tracks are divided up between full rhythm section treatments with Buddy and Muddy as a duo and the final track, "Feel Like Going Home," which Waters approaches solo. What makes this version of the album a worthwhile buy is the inclusion of five bonus tracks from his next two sessions: An April 1964 session brings us Willie Dixon's "The Same Thing" and Muddy's "You Can't Lose What You Never Had," while the October 1964 session features J.T. Brown on sax and clarinet on "Short Dress Woman" and "My John the

Muddy Waters - Folk Singer (1964)

Written by bluesever

Wednesday, 23 June 2010 08:52 - Last Updated Friday, 07 June 2013 16:55

Conqueror Root," as well as "Put Me in Your Lay Away," another strong side. Folk Singer offers both sides of Muddy from the early '60s. ---Cub Koda, Rovi download: uploaded anonfiles gett mega 4shared mixturecloud yandex mediafire

ziddu

back