Terry Evans is a bluesman from Vicksburg, Mississippi, the hometown of Willie Dixon. His new CD, Walk That Walk, finds the singer and guitarist carrying on in the tradition of masters like Dixon. Evans' breakthrough took place in the late '80s when he sang "Down in the Mississippi" and the title piece for the film Crossroads.--- JAZZIZ Magazine 2000, amazon.com
