Sensational comeback by Denmark's oldest blues band at the 2008 Copenhagen Blues Festival. A keystone of the Danish blues scene in the 1960's, Delta Blues Band reshaped with extreme commercial success as Delta Cross Band in the 1980's.

In 2008 most of the original members decided to get together for a 40th anniversary reunion at the Copenhagen Blues Festival. Back in the '60s they called themselves The Delta Blues & Boogie Band. Today's lineup still have Troels Jensen fronting the band with Thomas Puggaard-Müller on the side on his guitar like back in 67. Knut Henriksen is a newcomer on bass, but has during the years been a member of the band playing guitar and also Jørgen Lang – who often joined Delta Blues Band on stage in the past – is now a fullfledged member of the group. The latest addition to the band is the very skilled and widely traveled drummer Asmus Jensen. ---deltabluesband.com
