Adolphe Adam – Giselle (Video)

Giselle: Alina Cojocaru Count Albrecht: Johan Kobborg Myrtha (Queen of the Wilis): Marianela Nuñez Hilarion (a forester): Martin Harvey The Royal Ballet The Orchestra of the Royal Opera House Choreographer: Marius Petipa Conductor: Boris Gruzin Recorded live at the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, London in January 2006.

Giselle is the quintessential Romantic ballet. Its title role, one of the most technically demanding and emotionally challenging in the classical repertory, is here danced by Alina Cojocaru, partnered by Johan Kobborg as Count Albrecht. This tale of the transcendental power of love over death is evocatively portrayed through Peter Wright's sensitive staging and John Macfarlane's designs, which beautifully contrast the human and supernatural worlds.
