

Boris Pigovat - Requiem The Holocaust (2001)

Written by bluesever

Wednesday, 23 February 2011 19:23 - Last Updated Friday, 14 March 2014 10:01

Boris Pigovat - Requiem The Holocaust (2001)

Part 1 "Requiem Aeternam" 12:35

Part 2 "Dies Irae" 13:03

Part 3 "Lacrimosa" 08:10 play

Part 4 "Lux Eterna" 13:19

Rainer Moog - Viola

The Symphony Orchestra of Ukrainian National Philharmonic Society.

Conductor - Roman Kofman.

"I'm sure that the Holocaust Requiem has a great future. Boris Pigovat's composition is very sophisticated, but it isn't flowery or pretentious. It is simple but not primitive, it is frank and heartfelt, an outstanding work." --Roman Kofman, Ukrainian daily newspaper "The Day", 9 October 2001

Boris Pigovat (born in Odessa, USSR, 1953) is Israeli composer. Many of his works have been performed throughout the world. He has studied at Gnessin Music Institute (Academia of Music) in Moscow. Between 1978 and 1990 he lived in Tadjikistan, and in 1990 immigrated to Israel. In 2002 he received his Ph.D. degree from Bar-Ilan University (Israel).

The composer's grandparents died in Babi Yar so this piece was very personal.

download: uploaded yandex 4shared mediafire solidfiles mega gett filecloudio nor

Boris Pigovat - Requiem The Holocaust (2001)

Written by bluesever

Wednesday, 23 February 2011 19:23 - Last Updated Friday, 14 March 2014 10:01

nar

ziddu

back