Born in 1696 in Thuringen, Johann Melchior Molter’s musical talent was recognized at an early age. He served in the court orchestra at Karlsruhe, and later studied alongside Vivaldi and Scarlatti in Italy before returning home to live the rest of his life as a court composer. Molter’s work is characterized by ceremonial and festive tunes. His happy mix of German counterpoint, French grandeur, and Italian brilliance create a charming and intricate listening experience.
