

Dobrzynski – Chamber Works with Piano Vol.1 (2013)

Written by bluesever (Bogdan Marszałkowski)
Monday, 20 July 2020 16:12 -

Dobrzynski – Chamber Works with Piano Vol.1 (2013)

1. Piano Trio in A minor, op.17 - I. Allegro moderato [0:16:09.27] 2. Piano Trio in A minor, op.17 - II. Scherzo [0:06:53.12] 3. Piano Trio in A minor, op.17 - III. Adagio fantastico [0:11:27.58] 4. Piano Trio in A minor, op.17 - IV. Rondo [0:11:01.37] 5. Souvenir de Dresde for oboe, cello and piano, op.47 [0:08:20.53] 6. Les Larmes for cello and piano, op.41 [0:06:18.13] 7. Introduction et Variations for violin and piano, op.18 [0:14:50.57] Les Explorateurs: Joanna Ławrynowicz (piano) Anna Orlik (violin) Łukasz Tudzierz (cello) Grzegorz Stec (oboe)

Dobrzyński's Piano Trio is very Schubertesque in places, the final especially. It is a huge work, but holds the listener's interest throughout. The playing of Ławrynowicz, Tudzierz and violinist Anna Orlik is both sympathetic and characterful, making a terrific case for a terrific work. Grzegorz Stec's colourful oboe adds a dash of something different in Souvenir of Dresden, a work which recalls good times past in loving and indeed moving tones. Les Larmes too is a delightful little piece, unpretentious, slightly melancholic. Finally, the Introduction and Variations is like an early piece by Henryk Wieniawski - not a great work as such, but cheery entertainment for both listeners and performers. Dobrzyński's original, incidentally, was for flute and piano - the notes do not say whose arrangement this is. ---Byzantion, musicweb-international.com

The big work here is the 45-minute trio from 1831, very much in the Hummel style of much brilliant piano figuration in its three fast movements with an Adagio fantastico in the style of a vocal scena to offset the cascade of piano notes. The couplings are high quality salon music, beautifully cantilena-style in Dresde and Larmes. Les Explorateurs. ---recordsinternational.com

Dobrzynski – Chamber Works with Piano Vol.1 (2013)

Written by bluesever (Bogdan Marszałkowski)

Monday, 20 July 2020 16:12 -

download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto gett bayfiles

back