This is my favorite CD! Interesting compositions with complex accompaniments, performed wonderfully on the 1833 Joseph Callinet organ of St. Jean Baptiste, in Mollau, Alsace. This fascinating French organ has several bright reed stops, great mixtures, and a captivating variety of flutes, including an ethereal one and a unique transverse flute! Pachelbel's (lesser-known) organ music is absolutely delightful! Several selections feature the beautiful solo stops while giving you a joyous melody to remember and hum. ---Richard B.
