Itzhak Perlman – violin Orchestre De Paris Daniel Barenboim – conductor

Perlman lavishes his customary care on these works and almost persuades us to add the name of Vieuxtemps to that supposedly elusive list of great Belgians. He knows better than most that only wholehearted and unembarrassed playing can disguise the relative thinness of some of the material. One listens in amazement to the technical wizardry he applies to the Scherzo of the D minor concerto. ---David Wilkins, classical-music.com
