Over the past several years, I have had the great pleasure of performing with these fine musicians and gentlemen. We've done hundreds of gigs together and learned how to read each other well. We are intimately acquainted with each other's sound, our strengths and weaknesses, our musical preferences and influences. And, to top it off, we're great friends. Simply put, these are some of the coolest guys around and I am incredibly fortunate to get to make music with them. And if you enjoy listening to this CD even half as much as we enjoy playing together, I'll be thrilled! Dig? Dig! ---Tony Guerrero, cdbaby.com
