The famed jazz guitarist recorded this predominant collection of collaborations with various singers over a 6 year period. The first that started it all was a session with the Russian vocalist Leonid Agutin. Always on the lookout for new challenges, Di Meola expanded on the concept for this very special and exceptional album. The featured material includes artists like Xavier Naidoo, Angie Stone, Macy Gray, MC Solaar and Swedish pop singer Bosson. A thoroughly distinctive release in Di Meola's longstanding career and certainly one that marks him as an accomplished wanderer between different stylistic worlds. ---cduniverse.com
