

Aimua Eghobamien - London Live (2014)

Written by bluesever

Sunday, 23 November 2014 16:54 -

Aimua Eghobamien - London Live (2014)

*01 - Benediction [00:03:34] 02 - On The Surface [00:05:05] 03 - Patches Enough [00:08:36]
04 - Coffee Shop Window [00:07:08] 05 - Wayfaring Stranger [00:05:03] 06 - Same Girl
[00:03:26] 07 - You Gotta Move [00:03:33] 08 - There Is A Balm In Gilead [00:05:14] 09 -
Pearls [00:05:19] 10 - IndigoSlate Of The Atlantic [00:07:44] 11 - Loving You [00:04:36]*

“He is a true, thoroughly exciting, original.” ---JazzTimes

Aimua Eghobamien is a British singer-songwriter and poet based in New York City. London-born to parents of the ñdo ethnic group in southwestern Nigeria, and a family that appreciated music, he grew up listening to everything: US/UK Pop, R&B/Soul, Rock, Gospel, Country, Blues, Highlife, Afrobeat, Juju and ñdo folk music.

This post-beat urban contemporary jazz artist releases his second album on his own label, Quaesor Music, in September 2014. Recorded live in London at Kings Place and Pizza Express Jazz Club, London Live captures Eghobamien’s Black Sessions project created and performed by him with a group of brilliantly talented UK musicians. He released his debut album, Poured Gently, in 2010 to rave reviews. --- musicians.allaboutjazz.com download (mp3 @320 kbs):

Aimua Eghobamien - London Live (2014)

Written by bluesever

Sunday, 23 November 2014 16:54 -

uploaded yandex 4shared mediafire mega solidfiles zalivalka cloudmailru filecloud
io oboo
m
uplea

back