

Peggy Lee – Ole ala Lee (1960)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 19 October 2009 21:01 - Last Updated Tuesday, 31 March 2015 13:08

Peggy Lee – Ole ala Lee (1960)

01) Come Dance With Me 02) By Myself 03) You're So Right 04) Just Squeeze Me 05) Fantastico 06) Love And Marriage 07) Non Dimenticar 08) From Now On 09) You Stepped Out Of A Dream 10) Ole 11) I Can't Resist You

Velvety flutes, peppy percussion, well-behaved brass -- yes, the stage is set once more for Peggy Lee's sedately suggestive Latin musings. Seemingly ghost-written in George Shearing's ultra-lounge hand, this sequel to the singer's Latin ala Lee! album offers another enchanting mix of jazz-vocal staples ("Come Dance with Me," "You Stepped Out of a Dream") and Broadway-issue mambo ("Fantastico," "Non Dimenticar"). Never fear the drip-drip of gloss in extremis, though, for Lee always distinguishes the Cuban-lite environs with her throaty ballad tone and unerring rhythmic sense. Arranger and conductor Joe Harnell does let the Latin fire loose a bit ("From Now On"), but generally things remain on auto glide. A perfect backdrop for your next tiki-torch affair, this harmless conga turn -- while certainly not essential -- is sure to be eaten up by all of Lee's adoring fans. ---Stephen Cook, Rovi download (mp3 @192 kbs):

uploaded yandex 4shared mega mediafire gett solidfiles zalivalka cloudmailru o boom

Peggy Lee – Ole ala Lee (1960)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 19 October 2009 21:01 - Last Updated Tuesday, 31 March 2015 13:08

back