Girls from Mars capture the essence of a music that was born in smoky bars in the 1930's. True to that tradition, their intuitive harmonies are a joyous remembrance of the swing era. Material includes songs recorded by: The Boswell Sisters, Cats 'n the Fiddle, The Mills Brothers, Ella Fitzgerald, The Andrews Sisters, Louis Armstrong. ---cdbaby.com

GIRLS FROM MARS (Annie, Lauren & Wendi) began singing together nearly 25 years ago, and are still going strong. They have traveled millions of miles in a car together, and have had TONS AND TONS OF FUN. The joy they get out of performing together is a big part of what makes Girls from Mars so enjoyable to listen to. Though they now hail from three different states, they still make it a point to get together at least a couple of times a year to keep this wonderful music happening. ---girlsfrommars.com
