

Toots Thielemans & Shirley Horn Trio - For My Lady (1991)

Written by bluesever

Sunday, 12 January 2014 16:30 - Last Updated Monday, 01 June 2015 10:32

Toots Thielemans & Shirley Horn Trio - For My Lady (1991)

1 For My Lady 4:30 2 How Long Has This Been Going On ? 5:29 3 Blues In The Closet 4:11
4 Someone To Watch Over Me 8:04 5 I'm Beginning To See The Light 4:37 6 The More I See
You 4:54 7 The Mooche 4:00 8 Close Your Eyes 4:37 9 Blue And Sentimental 3:29 10
Corcovado (Quiet Nights Of Quiet Stars) 5:37 11 Willow Weep For Me 4:49 12 Once In A
While 3:18 Toots Thielemans – harmonica, vocals, whistle Shirley Horn – piano, vocals (4)
Charles Ables – bass Steve Williams – drums

The emphasis is on ballads for harmonica player Toots Thielemans' outing with the Shirley Horn Trio. Horn, in addition to contributing some tastefully supportive piano and occasional solos, takes a vocal on "Someone to Watch Over Me." Toots sounds quite relaxed performing 11 standards (only "Blues in the Closet" generates much heat) plus his original "For My Lady" with such comfortable backing. ---Scott Yanow, Rovi download: yandex 4shared mediafire mega

back