

Hadley Caliman – lapetus (1972)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 06 December 2018 12:23 -

Hadley Caliman – lapetus (1972)

A1 Watercress 3:45 A2 Ambivalence 7:38 A3 Dee's Glee 7:39 B1 lapetus 9:59 B2 Quadrivium 3:48 B3 Green Eyes 5:17 Bass – James Leary Congas – Victor Pantoja
Drums – Woody Theus Flute – Hadley Caliman Piano – Todd Cochran Tenor Saxophone –
Hadley Caliman Timbales – Hungria Garcia Trumpet – Luis Gasca

Tenor saxophonist Hadley Caliman is part of the living history of jazz music in America.

He performed, recorded and toured with musicians such as Freddie Hubbard, Gerald Wilson, Carlos Santana, Dexter Gordon, Elvin Jones, Mongo Santamaria, Joe Pass, The Grateful Dead, Joe Henderson, Don Ellis, Flora Purim, Phoebe Snow, Bobby Hutcherson and many others.

His influence on the sound of modern jazz music can be heard on many of his albums as a leader, including his newest release on Origin Records: Gratitude, featuring drummer Joe LeBarbera, vibraphone master Joe Locke and trumpeter Thomas Marriott.

At 77 years old and now making his home in Seattle, Hadley Caliman is an active and vibrant part of the busy Seattle music scene, and continues to tour, teach and perform throughout the world. ---Jim Wilke, allaboutjazz.com download (mp3 @320 kbs):

Hadley Caliman – lapetus (1972)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 06 December 2018 12:23 -

yandex mediafire ulozto gett

back