Ska Cubano is a London-based group which combines ska and Cuban music such as son and mambo, with elements of other genres including cumbia and calypso. Mambo Ska is the band's fourth album. Some of the tunes are re-arranged Latin standards—Guillermo Gonzalez's "Lupita," Daniel Flores' "Tequila," Ramos Duarte's "Pepe"—some are Natty Bo originals. Others, like the Andean "Cumbia Del Monte," featuring guest clarinetist Enrique Bordon, are re-arrangements of Caribbean or South American folk tunes.
