Argentinean pop/rock singer/songwriter Daniela Herrero was captivated by music after attending a Miguel Mateos show in her native Buenos Aires. It was in 1996, at the age of ten, when she began singing, soon, recording a two-track demo and joining a band for the first time in 1999. While taking piano and singing classes, Daniela Herrero made a second demo, good enough to get a record deal from Sony Music, recording her self-titled debut album, produced by Alejo Stivel. ---Drago Bonacich, Rovi
