Gianna Nannini (ur. 14 czerwca 1956 w Sienie) — włoska piosenkarka rockowa. Autorka tekstów piosenek. Jej pierwszym hitem był w 1979 r. singel America z albumu California, który puszczano w kilku krajach europejskich. Jej popularność we Włoszech rozpoczęła się w 1984 r. wraz z ukazaniem się jej szóstego albumu (Puzzle). Album ten znalazł się na szczycie list przebojów ("top 10") we Włoszech, Niemczech, Austrii i Szwajcarii. W 1990 r. razem z Edoardo Bennato śpiewała oficjalny hymn piłkarskich Mistrzostw Świata w 1990 r., Un'estate italiana.

Gianna Nannini (born 14 June 1956) is an Italian female singer-songwriter and rock musician. She may be best known for her 1986 song "Bello e Impossibile". Her first hit was in 1979 with the single "America" and the album California, which became a success in several European countries. The rise to fame in Italy started in 1984 with the release of her sixth album, Puzzle. This album peaked in the top 10 at the Italian, German, Austrian and Swiss hit-parades. She sang for the videoclip "Fotoromanza" (directed by Michelangelo Antonioni), won several musical awards and started a European tour, including a participation at the Montreux Jazz Festival. In 1986, her hit "Bello e Impossibile" was a huge success and brought her more awards in Italy, Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Her 1987 compilation Maschi e Altri sold over a million copies. In 1990, she and Edoardo Bennato sang "Un'estate italiana", the official song of the Football World Cup 1990. In September 2006, she recorded the CD single "Ama Credi E Vai" with Andrea Bocelli.
